7. Opening a Trade

7.1 No Rights in Underlying Agreement

A trade does not entitle you to any rights in relation to the Underlying Instrument being traded and you will not be entitled to delivery of the Underlying Instrument; nor will you acquire any ownership or other such rights in relation to it.

7.2 Opening a Trade using our Trading Platform

You will be able to open or close a Position and place Limit Orders and Stop Loss Orders on a trade opened with us via our Trading Platform.

We will have no liability to you if any internet connection is lost with the result that you are unable to trade at any given price.

We do not warrant that the Trading Platform will always be available or accessible when the markets on which the Underlying Instruments in respect of which you have traded or wish to trade are open and we reserve the right to remove altogether or reduce the Trading Platform service at any time for any purpose, without thereby incurring any liability to you.

If our computer records are at variance with your own records or recollection of your trading, the version of events recorded contemporaneously by our computer will prevail and our obligations to each other (including the obligation to pay any money) will be assessed and calculated on the basis that our contemporaneous computer records are correct and are conclusive evidence of the matters they record.

7.3 Telephone

- a) You may request a quote to open a trade or close a Position or otherwise give trading instructions by telephone on one of our designated trading lines. Indeed, you may do so if our Trading Platform is experiencing difficulties in placing a trade or closing an open Position.
- b) When you trade by telephone your instructions to open or close a Margin Contract must be given to our trader during the same telephone conversation in which the quote was given. We have no liability to you if this telephone conversation is interrupted before we receive an instruction from you to trade on that quote; nor will we be under any obligation to repeat the quote in a subsequent conversation.

7.4 Nature of Quote

A quote given to you by one of our traders is not an offer to contract. If you indicate that you wish to trade at the price quoted you will be deemed to be making an offer to trade at the quoted price and our trader will be entitled to confirm or reject that offer. No trade will be effective unless and until such confirmation is given.

7.5 Formation of Contract

Your clicking 'buy' or 'sell' or accepting a quote to buy or sell by telephone will send a message to our traders indicating that you wish to trade on the terms and conditions indicated. This message will constitute an offer by you to buy or sell at the price and trade size chosen. If we accept the trade, we will send you a message to this effect. Your trade will not have been placed and no contract will come into existence until we send this message to you. You must wait for this message to appear after sending a 'buy' or 'sell' message and should you not receive this within two minutes you must notify us immediately. If you do not receive our Confirmation and you do not notify us as required, you will be deemed to have agreed only the transactions recorded by us. Similarly, if you dispute the contents of any Confirmation sent by us to you, you must notify us immediately upon receipt by telephone; if you do not, the transactions recorded by us will be deemed to have been agreed by you.

7.6 New Zealand Dollars

All payments made by you to us and by us to you shall be in New Zealand dollars unless otherwise agreed.

7.7 Opposing Positions

- a) You may run opposing Positions in Margin Contracts in the same currency pair and a Position in a market where you have an opposing Position already opened. Both long and short Positions will appear in your trade account and they will be treated as two open Positions. When you choose to keep two opposing open Positions they will be revalued and rolled as an individual open Position until you choose to offset or match the two Positions.
- b) You may run opposing Positions in the same market and a Position in a market where you have an opposing Position already open will automatically be deemed to be an instruction to close the earlier Position. If you have more than one open Position in the same market, closing trades will apply to them on a first opened first closed basis, unless otherwise agreed by us.

7.8 Difference in Buy and Sell Price

You understand there may be a wider difference between 'buy' and 'sell' prices you are quoted on closing a Position than when it was opened.

7.10 Profit and Losses

You further understand that a payment will pass between us equal to the difference in value expressed in United States dollars between the opening price of all Positions and their Closing Prices. If you make a profit, we must pay a sum to you equal to that profit. If you make a loss you must pay to us a sum equal to that loss.

8. Pricing

8.1 Quotes

We will quote prices which provide an indication of the prices at which we are prepared to deal with you and which are calculated in accordance with clause 23.4 for Margin Contracts. You should note that:

- a) Principal: we act under this Agreement as a principal, and accordingly, set the applicable price at which we are prepared to deal with you;

- b) make the quote subject to special conditions and requirements;

as we consider fair and reasonable and as notified to you by us at the time of the order being considered by us. This may occur, for example, when you place an order outside the Normal Trading Size, or the aggregate of your order and all other orders for a Margin Contract is outside the Normal Trading Size, or to take account of any change in market conditions since the original quote. Such amended Contract Price will be determined by us as we consider fair and reasonable having regard to the applicable prices and costs of entering into a transaction of that size on the relevant market. You will not be obliged to proceed with any order for which special conditions and requirements are notified to you by us. For example, we may quote a revised price applicable to the proposed Margin Contract which you may, at your absolute discretion, accept or reject. The amended quote may no longer be available if there is any delay in acceptance.

- b) a Margin Contract closes automatically;

it is your responsibility to decide whether or not you wish to deal at those prices. If you decide to deal at the prices indicated by us, you may make an offer to us to deal at that price. We may choose, in our absolute discretion, whether to accept or reject any offer to deal made by you.

8.6 Errors in Prices

- a) It is possible that errors, omissions or misquotes (“Material Error”) may occur in the pricing of Margin Contracts quoted by us, which by fault of either of us or any third party, is materially incorrect when taking into account market conditions and quotes in Underlying Instruments which prevailed at the time. A Material Error may include an incorrect price, date, time or Margin Contract or any error or lack of clarity of any information.

If a trade is based on a Material Error, we reserve the right without your consent to:

- i. amend the terms and conditions of the Margin Contract to reflect what we consider to have been the fair price at the time the Margin Contract was entered into and there had been no Material Error;
 - ii. close the trade and any open Positions resulting from it;
 - iii. void the Margin Contract from the outset; or
 - iv. refrain from taking action to amend or void the Margin Contract.

If we reasonably believe that you have manipulated our prices, our execution processes or our Trading Platform, we may in our sole and absolute discretion, subject to paragraph 8.6(b) without notice to you:

- a) enforce the trade(s) against you if it is a trade(s) which results in you owing money to us;
- b) treat all your trades as void from the outset if they are trades which result in us owing money to you, unless you produce conclusive evidence within 30 days of us giving you notice under this clause that you have not committed any breach of warranty, misrepresentation or undertaking in this Agreement;
- c) withhold any funds suspected to have been derived from any such activities;
- d) make any resultant corrections or adjustments to your Account;

9.1 Initial Margin

Upon placing a trade that creates an open Position you are required to pay us, or have in your Account, the Margin for that trade as calculated by us (“Initial Margin”).

9.2 Margins while positions are Open

In addition to the Initial Margin, you must have in respect of all open Positions on your Account Margin calculated on the basis of the current Contract Price then being quoted and determined by us under clauses 8.4 of this Agreement. The amount of Margin on your Account at any time will be determined as if such payments as are due under this clause 9 were calculated and deducted from your Account on an ongoing basis during the day and based on the current bid or offer Contract Price (as applicable).

9.3 Continuing Margin Obligation

You also have a continuing Margin obligation to us to ensure that at all times during which you have opened Positions your account balance, that is your Total Net Equity, taking into account all realised or unrealised Profits and Losses (“P&L”), is equal to at least the Margin that we require you to have paid to us for all of your open Positions. If there is any shortfall between your equity and your total Margin Requirement, you are required to deposit additional funds into your account. These funds are due and payable to us immediately on your equity falling below your Margin Requirement.

9.4 Exceptions

The requirements imposed under clauses 9.1 to 9.3 will vary in the following circumstances:

- a) we have expressly told you that you have an account type that allows for longer payment periods for Margin, in which case you must pay Margin in accordance with the payment periods that we have advised you;
- b) we have expressly agreed to reduce or waive a part of the Margin that we would otherwise require you to pay us in respect of a trade; the period of waiver or reduction may be temporary and must be agreed in writing by us. Any such agreement will not restrict our right to seek further Margin in respect of the trade or open Positions at any time thereafter;
- c) we agree otherwise in writing, in which case you will be required to comply with such terms and conditions as stated in such written agreement;
- d) when you hold open Positions in a Margin Contract and you place one or more trades in the opposite direction in a Margin Contract with the same Underlying Instrument, your Margin Requirement for all open Positions with the same Underlying Instrument is the larger of the aggregate of the Margin Requirements for all Long Positions or the aggregate of the Margin Requirements for all Short Positions;
- e) for certain Margin Contracts or options or option related instruments;
- f) if we change the Margin Percentage under clause 9.5.

In the case of your continuous Margin obligation set out in clause 9.3, you will not be required to pay it if we have extended you a credit facility, and you have sufficient credit to cover your Margin Requirements. However, if at any time the credit facility is not sufficient to cover the Margin Requirement on your open Positions you must immediately place additional funds in your Account in order to fully cover the Margin Requirements.

9.5 Changing Margin Percentage

We may vary the Margin Percentage, but we will only do so where we reasonably consider it necessary, for example in response to or in anticipation of the following:

- i. changing volatility and/or liquidity in the Underlying Instrument or in the financial markets generally;
- ii. economic news;

iii.changes in your dealing pattern with us;

iv.your credit circumstances change; or

Nevertheless, it is your responsibility when placing any orders over the telephone to ensure that you request all relevant information in respect of your Account before placing any orders to open or close a Position, including all information in respect of your current open Positions. We will not be responsible for any losses you may suffer or incur as a result of not requesting any such information.

- b) It is your responsibility to monitor at all times the amount of Margin deposited with us from time to time against the amount of any Margin currently required under clauses 24 and 25 of this Agreement and any additional Margin that may be necessary or desirable, having regard to such matters but not limited to as:

However, if we do so, the Margin Call may be made by telephone call, post, fax, email or text message. The Margin Call is deemed to have been made as soon as you are deemed to have received such notice in accordance with clause 50. We are deemed to have made a demand on you if:

- a) we have left a message requesting you to contact us and you have not done so within a reasonable time after we have left such a message; or
- b) if we are unable to leave such a message and have used all reasonable endeavours to contact you by telephone at the telephone number last notified to us by you, but have been unable to contact you on such number.

10.4 Timing of Changes to Margin Percentages

You agree and acknowledge that any variation of the Margin Percentage under clause 9.5 of this Agreement may take immediate effect on and from you being given notice of the variation in accordance with this Agreement.

10.5 No Online Access

Where we are not able to provide you online access through the Electronic Facility to information on the Account due to circumstances that are reasonably within our control, we will use reasonable endeavors to make a Margin Call. You accept that in extreme circumstances where your open Positions are moving or have moved particularly quickly against you, we may not provide a Margin Call before exercising our rights to close out your Positions under this Agreement.

10.6 Your obligation to notify us

It is your responsibility to notify us immediately of any changes in your contact details and to provide us with any alternative contact details and ensure that our Margin Calls will be met if you will be uncontactable at the contact address or telephone number notified to us. You acknowledge that we are not liable for any losses (including indirect or consequential losses), costs, expense or damages incurred or suffered by you as a consequence of your failure to do so.

10.7 Time allowance for rewarding Margin

We are not obliged to allow you time to forward further funds to meet such Margin as is required under this clause 10 before exercising our right to close out your Positions. However, where we, in our absolute discretion, do allow you time to meet your Margin Requirements, that permission will only be effective once it is confirmed in writing by us, and only to the extent specified in the written notice given by us.

We may, however, at our discretion proceed to fill such an order notwithstanding that your account has insufficient trading resources to cover the initial Margin for the trade which is to be opened.
